ITALIANS CENSOR WAR NEWS

Bloody Massacre by Arabs Kept from World for a Week. THOUSAND MEN SHOT TO PIECES. False Information Invites Attack by Italians and Huge Force of Turks and Arabs Gain Victory.

CHIASSO, Switzerland, May 26.—The strict censorship which the Italian government has imposed on all news relating to the state of affairs in Tripoli and particularly with regard to the defeat of the Italian forces at Sidi Garba on May 16, has made it difficult to obtain exact information on the recent reverses in that territory.

An Italian workman named Machiavelli, who had been taken prisoner by the Arabs, was allowed to escape after being carefully primed with false information which he carried to General Gambretti. Instead of waiting to carry out a scheme of co-operation with General Tasso, who was on his way from Benghazi with a strong force, General Gambretti, on the strength of the workman's report that the number of the enemy was small, decided to attack alone. Accordingly he divided his 3,000 men into three columns which were supported by four guns and a battery of howitzers. After the first flush of victory, the Italian soldiers were resting, when suddenly each column was set upon from front and rear and cut off from the others. At the same time they were subjected to a heavy shell fire.

The Italians showed admirable courage and endurance. Some of the companies lost all of their officers. One advance detachment lost thirty-six out of forty men, and it was soon apparent that retreat alone would save the forces from annihilation. Colonel Magliana was shot as he lay dying, writing a report praising his men and recommending for promotion his major, who, although twice wounded, took command. General Gambretti, on his return to Derna said: "It was the bloodiest day of the whole Italo-Turkish war." The Italian losses are estimated at 1,000.

Mann and Bowers Are on Trial for Misuse of Mails

Arthur and J. W. Mann and J. L. Bowers are on trial in federal court under an indictment including the two counts of conspiring to defraud and using the mails to defraud. They were arrested last fall after they had been operating at an Omaha hotel for some weeks. They sold what they called a "simplex powder ejector" and offered to sell exclusive agencies in this and other states. The instrument, it is said, was no good, and the company which was supposed to be manufacturing them, did not exist, according to the charge. The forenoon was spent in empanelling a jury.

TROUBLE IN VENEZUELA

Report of Attempt Made on Life of President. VICE PRESIDENT IN PRISON. New York Leader of Opposition to Gomez Gets Message Indicating Activity of Executive Party. WILLEMSTADT, Curacao, May 26.—The discovery of a plot against the life of President Juan Vicente Gomez, has led to the arrest of eighty persons alleged to be implicated. According to the latest information from Curacao, the intention was to kill the president on May 25 at the horse races at Paralelo, a suburb of Curacao. Rumors of a revolutionary movement in Venezuela are current.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Chief Briggs Clamps Down Lid and Several Saloonmen Arrested.

REV. M. MUGAN SAYS MASS

Graduate of Creighton College, Ordained Priest Week Ago, in the Pulpit at St. Mary's Church.

Chief of Police Briggs put the lid down upon a clam in South Omaha yesterday. Several saloonmen and bootleggers were caught dispensing liquor and arrested. It is the first time in several years that Chief Briggs has been given a free hand. The word had been spread some days ago, following the resolution to "clean-up" adopted by the board. At first it was thought that the order would not amount to any more than those given previously, but the saloonmen were warned and Saturday night the police took hold of the situation under the strict orders of Chief Briggs.

Man of Mystery Thought Identified

ROCHESTER, Minn., May 26.—That "J. C. R.," the unidentified patient at the Rochester state hospital for the insane, is Lieutenant Jacob R. Rotrom is the belief of state hospital officials. The man was given credence by "J. C. R.," who enthusiastically indicated today that he identified him had been established. The information came in a letter from Edward Voet, a sailor of Newark, N. J., who claims that he was with Rotrom on the battleship New York and that both took part in the battle of Malanosa, Cuba, during the Spanish-American war. In which Rotrom received a number of scars. Voet furnished the information after reading press accounts of the case and after seeing the picture of "J. C. R." in a Newark newspaper.

At the Theaters

"Petitcoat Minstrels" at the Hippodrome. A little bit of most everything is on the program at the Hippodrome this week. The production is known as "The Petitcoat Minstrels," but it could as well be called vaudeville or a chorus of specialities. Comedy and music form the greater part of the entertainment and both are given by artists capable to handle them, especially the musical features. The Transfield sisters and Fred Heider with musical instruments and Fred Heider in a dancing number comprise an oldie above par. But the feature of the show is a little girl with a violin, who is not given prominence on the program. She answered a number of encores last night from an audience that had had its enthusiasm dampened, possibly by the rain. Bessie Draper, the interlocutor for the minstrel part of the bill, sang a couple of solos in a voice that is unusually low and melodious for a girl. Nellie D'Coursey was the "pepper" of the company. She lived things up quite a bit with her own way of offering songs. She has a good voice. The bill ends with "The Illusionist," a girl who is trying out for a job as a lightning change vaudeville star. The near plot is an excuse for the introduction of the several good specialty numbers.

Police Raids Fill Court with Motley Throng; Many Fined

The police department must have indulged in hypos of concentrated energy since Saturday evening, when Captain Heifetz herded the prisoners from the lockup to the bullpen a delegation from the underworld about 30 strong responded to his call and faced Judge Britt. The big crowd of prisoners consisted principally of inmates and proprietors of disorderly houses and saloons which have violated the closing laws. Those whose cases were heard during the morning were: Gerlie Bromfield, 117 Douglas street, fined $10 and costs; Emma Johnson, 1211 South Thirteenth, $10 and costs, a crew of inmates from Shannon Brown's, 114 North Tenth street, Shannon himself failing to appear and forfeiting bonds; inmates of a saloon at Tenth and Des Moines, conducted by F. Kelley; another of Charles Powell's at Thirteenth and Spaulding, heard with very few exceptions all people found in these places were dismissed, although several were fined $5 and costs.

DANIELS LAUDS BRYAN AND ROOSEVELT, ALSO

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Prairie of Secretary Bryan for "the courage of his convictions," in refusing to serve wine at a dinner he gave recently to the diplomatic corps was given by Secretary Daniels today in addressing a Sunday school rally for prohibition in the District of Columbia. He advised all young men to follow Secretary Bryan's course and to seek safety in total abstinence. Secretary Daniels also lauded Theodore Roosevelt for prosecuting for libel an editor accused of circulating stories relative to drinking on the part of the former president.

"TIGER HSU" KILLED IN PALACE BY BOMB

SHANGHAI, May 26.—General Hsu Pao San was killed by a bomb today, while opening a box in the belief that it contained porcelain, of which he was an ardent collector. He had sent for a piece of porcelain, and when the box arrived he attempted to pry off the cover. A terrible explosion resulted and he was hurled with great force to the opposite end of the room. A servant also was instantly killed. The general, who was known as "Tiger Hsu," was a strong supporter of President Yuan Shi Kai, and the object of bitter hatred to the southern extremists.
